

RECONCILIATION OF MARYLAND

The Withdrawing Delegation Returns to the Fold.

NOW A HARMONIOUS BODY

It is Believed That Their Return Will Stop the Rate Cutting Going on.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, Va., June 20.—The feature of the day in the meeting of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association was the reconciliation and reception of the delegation of grocers from Maryland. Owing to differences which occurred during the annual convention at Asheville, N. C., several years ago, the jobbers from Maryland withdrew from the association, and have not been sending delegates. They were received, however, without a dissenting vote, and there is a harmonious body now.

President Van Hoose read a report on the reconciliation of the Maryland situation, which was accepted as final. Then he read the annual report of the work of the association, in which he noted the satisfactory relations existing between the manufacturers and the jobbers, the interest of the grocers, and spoke of the bright prospects ahead for the association, which is now recognized as an important factor in the development of Southern trade.

STORY.
President Van Hoose declared that the reconciliation of the twenty-five firms of Maryland would stop the rate-cutting which has prevailed between them and the Southern wholesalers. He said the manufacturers will recognize the "green book" of the association, and the names of the firms doing business with consumers or doing an excess of jobbing business should be excluded from that book. The Charleston delegation, twelve strong, is here wearing white cotton suits, made out of the cotton bagging material manufactured in that city. J. D. Koser, of T. W. Wagner and Company, Charleston, representing the Charleston delegates, has before the convention a resolution urging the Southern grocers to use cotton bagging, bagging made of the product of the South, instead of importing it for the purpose. One firm from Charleston engaged in the cotton bagging business employs eight hundred people.

William Judson, of Grand Rapids, Mich., chairman of the executive committee of the National Wholesale Grocers' Association, and William H. Hannan, president of the New York State Wholesale Grocers' Association, addressed the body. Mr. Judson spoke interestingly on the necessity of co-operation between the wholesale manufacturer and retailer.

BANQUET.
Charles S. King, the representatives here of the Franklin Sugar Refining Company, of Philadelphia, gave a banquet to the delegates and their wives at Ocean View this evening, and took them to the resort in special cars. To-morrow the delegates, of whom there are three hundred, will go sightseeing about the harbor and have a banquet at Hotel Chamberlin at Old Point Comfort at night.

MILITARY GERMAN.
Elegant Society Affair at the Virginia Military Institute.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEXINGTON, Va., June 20.—The military German at the Virginia Military Institute was danced last night in the Stonehall Jackson Gymnasium. At ten o'clock the fourteen couples of the opening figure marched into the dancing hall, which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion. A large crowd of spectators witnessed the German. After the opening figure, which was intricate and spectacular, about twenty other couples joined in the dance.

The gallant cadets and their fair companions were all clad in white. The young ladies carried immense bouquets of American Beauty roses, and their gallant escorts wore red sashes. The leader of the opening figure was Cadet J. M. Marshall, of Norfolk, with Miss Florence Hewitt, of Bramwell, W. Va. Following is the list of dancers in the opening figure:

Miss McGuire, of Winchester, Va., white net, pearl ornaments, with Cadet W. T. Foyles, of Charlottesville, Va.
Miss Evelyn Burrill, of Wilmington, N. C., white net, pearls, with Cadet Kenneth S. Perkins, of Norfolk, Va.
Miss Florence Hewitt, of Bramwell, W. Va.

Bright's Disease and Diabetes News.

To the Druggists of Virginia:

Dear Sirs:—The discovery in this city of a new diabetic is saving thousands of lives. You as a brother druggist well know that up to this time chronic Bright's Disease and Diabetes have been necessarily fatal. It is so no longer. And I not only know this by being on the ground but I was also one of the patients. I had both Bright's Disease and Diabetes and looked upon death as inevitable. I was so prejudiced I wouldn't buy the new treatment. I couldn't believe it. I not only recovered but have since given it to somewhere near fifty patients and know of only three or four failures.

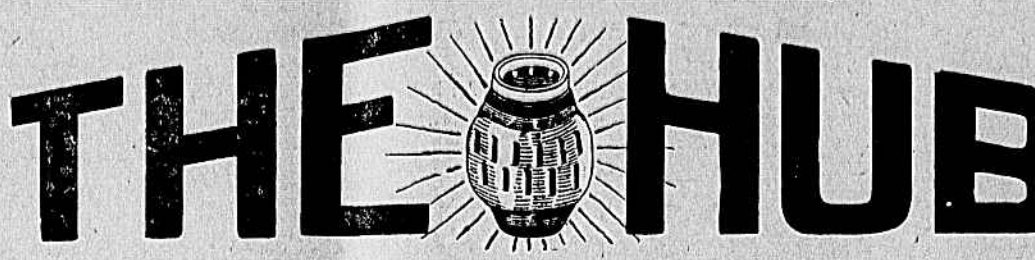

I am a pioneer druggist of this city; have been doing business on my own premises for forty-eight years, and I declare to you on the honor of a brother pharmacist the absolute curability of these dread diseases in about nine-tenths of all cases.

Yours sincerely,
C. A. ZIEGLER.
We sent for the Fulton Compound to which the above refers and now have them in stock. They are the first cure the world has ever seen for chronic Bright's Disease and Diabetes. Free pamphlet, Owens & Minor Drug Co. When you suspect Bright's Disease—weakness without cause; puffy ankles, hands or eyelids; kidney trouble after the third month; urine may show sediment, falling vision, drowsiness, or more of these.

CITIZENS REBUKE THE CITY COUNCIL

Refuse to Vote on Bond Issue and It Went By Default.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RICHMOND, N. C., June 20.—At an election held here to-day to authorize additional bond issues of seventy-five thousand dollars for enlarged water works and fifty thousand for additional school buildings, only three hundred and fifty favorable votes were cast, fifty voted against. The registered city vote being seventeen hundred, and the act authorizing the issue requiring a majority of registered vote to approve, there was an inglorious defeat. From the refusal to vote out of resentment for recent unpopular ordinances passed by the City Council, this being their first opportunity of recording a protest.

RUN OVER BY TRAIN.

Governor Glenn Sets Aside Formality and Wires Pardon.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., June 20.—A Southern freight train, run over by T. M. King at Cary, near Raleigh, this afternoon, and crushed off his right leg at the knee and the left foot, and a young man died of his injuries to-night at Rex Hospital, this city. He was twenty-one years old, a son of A. P. Mings, a well known broker of Henderson. The unfortunate young man was "hobnobbing" with three companions, and went to get off the train at Cary when the train stopped there, so trainmen would not see him, and caught his foot under the wheels. Physicians say he would have recovered but for the fact that he bled profusely for nearly an hour before a physician reached him, not one of many bystanders having presence of mind enough to bind the mutilated limbs to stop the flow of blood. Governor Glenn has telegraphed a pardon for Julius Ellobo, a white man, who is serving four months on the Anson county road for perjury. Application for the pardon had been pending some time, and a telegram came this evening saying that Ellobo was dying, for humanity's sake to suspend the sentence and telegraph the pardon. His Excellency lost no time in writing the pardon.

KILLED HIS WIFE.

Superintendent of Tannery is Drowned in a Vat.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTE, N. C., June 20.—John Huffman struck his wife with a chair at their home in Wilkes county yesterday, death resulting from the injury to-day. Huffman, who is said to be a desperate character, escaped. In the same county within a few miles of the Huffman home to-day, P. A. Jenkins, superintendent of a tannery, accidentally fell into a vat and was drowned.

The Jurors Will Appeal.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTE, N. C., June 20.—In the Federal Court to-day Judge Kennedy and P. F. Atwell, two of the jurors summoned for contempt of court in connection with certain information divulged as to the proceedings of the grand jury, filed answers to the rule issued against them. After hearing the answers and argument of counsel, Judge Boyd ordered the rule made absolute, stating that judgment would not be pronounced until the cases against the other three jurors had been disposed of. It is said an appeal will be taken to the Circuit Court of Appeals at Richmond.

LYNCHBURG PRIMARY.

Thos. D. Davis Renominated for Clerk By Good Majority.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, Va., June 20.—In the Democratic municipal primaries to-day Thos. D. Davis and E. C. Goods were both renominated for the offices of clerk of the courts and high constable respectively. Davis's majority over P. R. Taylor was 20, while Goods defeated R. L. Dillon by 65.

All the other candidates had no opposition and were declared nominees without entering the primary. The election passed off quietly.

MARTIN IN WASHINGTON.

Not Talking But Appears to Be Very Well Pleased.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 20.—Senator Martin is in Washington for a few days, "doing some more department work," as he laughingly put it. "To-morrow," he will accompany a Norfolk delegation to the War Department to take up with the Secretary of War the matter of erecting a bridge across the river at Norfolk.

Asked about his campaign, the Senator said he makes it a rule not to discuss these things for publication. But it was easy to see that the Senator regards the situation as being far from disheartening.

NEGRO SHOT TO DEATH BY A TENNESSEE MOB

Taken From Jail After Being Identified as Assailant of Young Woman.

(By Associated Press.)
NASHVILLE, TENN., June 20.—Simon Ford, a negro, who assaulted a white woman near Riversville, has been taken from jail at Hohenwald, Tenn., by a mob of fifty men and shot to death. Ford was arrested after being, perhaps, fatally wounded. After his arrest he admitted his guilt and was later identified by his victim. Ford was hauled to the scene of his crime, about ten miles, suffering from his wounds. He asked to be killed the quickest way and did not plead for his life.

REDDOCH GUILTY.

Confesses Crime and Begins One-Year Term in Prison.

(By Associated Press.)
ST. LOUIS, MO., June 20.—In the United States District Court to-day M. L. Reddoch, formerly postmaster at Yazoo City, Miss., entered a plea of guilty to a charge of perjury, and he was sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the penitentiary. Reddoch was charged with perjury in a case against the late Senator Jefferson Davis, who was charged with having been a participant in the sale of political influence against a North Carolina congressman. There was a charge of having made a corrupt oath pending against Reddoch in the case of criminal conviction, but when the plea of guilty to the charge of perjury was entered in the Federal Court the State charge was continued.

Was a Vaudeville Audience.

While the rain storm last night materially diminished the attendance at the Casino, the vaudeville bill being presented there during the entire week was well received. The various acts went rather more smoothly than on the opening night, and as a whole the show made a hit, judging from the applause. The "Fowers Brothers" were warmly applauded, and Joe Morris, the singing comedian, again made a decided hit with the crowd. The act of Lewis and Green furnished an entertaining feature, and the other acts pleased the crowd generally.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. M. E. Terrell.
Mrs. M. E. Terrell, wife of the late Dr. A. J. Terrell, died at the residence of her son-in-law, W. A. Hogg, City Bank, Gloucester county, Va., on the 18th instant. Mrs. Terrell was sixty-nine years of age. She leaves two children—Mrs. W. A. Hogg, and Mahlon C. Terrell, of Richmond. The funeral an interment will be at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church, Gloucester county, Va.

Mrs. Dora A. Chaddick.
Mrs. Dora A. Chaddick died, in the sixty-fifth year of her age, Monday, June 19th, in her home, 510 North Twenty-fifth Street. The funeral will be at Leigh Street Baptist Church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be in Oakwood Cemetery.

Funeral of Mrs. Cottrell.
Mr. Henry A. Cottrell was buried at 6:30 P. M. Monday from the residence of his son-in-law, Charles H. Hall. Those acting as pallbearers were Messrs. H. M. Rountree, W. W. Rountree, W. K. Saunders and Richard Hughes. Rev. M. Asbury Jones, of Leigh Street Baptist Church, conducted the service. Interment was in Oakwood Cemetery.

M. E. Hardy.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHASE CITY, VA., June 20.—Miss Edw. Hardy died at her residence, here, this morning after a long illness, in the seventy-fifth year of her age. She was extensively known, highly esteemed, and a man of probity and good domestic habits. She had over the State numerous relatives and friends. During the Civil War she was attached to the headquarters of General Fitzhugh Lee. The last time the writer saw the General he sent his regards to "Hardy," and said: "Tell him that Nelly Gray, the finest animal I ever had, I bought of him, was killed under me at Winchester."

For many years, Mr. Hardy was the principal fire insurance agent at this place, and conducted a large business. He leaves a widow—formerly Miss Alice Nelson—and one son.

Richard C. Noel.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PALMYRA, VA., June 20.—Mr. Richard C. Noel died Saturday at his home near the place of his birth. He was a most valued citizen. As deputy clerk he served the people for more than half a century faithfully and well. His frank manner, his simple tastes, his sweet temper and genuine and unforced cheerfulness endeared him to all with whom he came in contact. In early life he married Miss Sue Brown, of Brown's Cove, Albemarle county, and they celebrated their golden wedding seven years ago. His wife and three children—Mrs. Maudie, Mrs. Avis Noel and Mr. Frank Noel, of California, survive him.

Mrs. V. B. Mott.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEESBURG, VA., June 20.—Mrs. Virginia Bentley Mott, widow of the late Dr. A. R. Mott, of Leesburg, died at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at her home in this place of general debility in the eighty-first year of her age. She is survived by one son, Captain T. Bentley Mott, military attaché at the American legation, St. Petersburg, and five daughters—Misses Virginia and Eleanor Mott, Mrs. Henry Seaman, of Leesburg, Va.; Mrs. K. Chapin, of New York; Mrs. Henry Jenkins, of Baltimore. Mrs. Mott was a member of St. James Episcopal Church, this place, and her funeral will take place on Thursday.

Joseph Hogwood.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., June 20.—Mr. Joseph Hogwood died to-day in Blanford at the residence of his father-in-law, George Wingfield, a member of the Petersburg police force. Mr. Hogwood was formerly a locomotive engineer, but had been in ill health for several years. He leaves a widow and four children.

Ronald Fairfax, Jr.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROANOKE, VA., June 20.—Ronald Fairfax, Jr., the only child of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Fairfax of this city, died this morning, aged two years.

The child was operated on Sunday by Dr. McGuire, of Richmond, for bladder trouble.

DEATHS.
CHADDICK—Died, June 19, 1905, at her residence, 510 N. Twenty-fifth Street, at 12 M., Mrs. DORA A. CHADDICK, in her sixty-fifth year.

Funeral from Leigh Street Baptist Church, WEDNESDAY, June 21st, at 3 P. M. Friends and acquaintances respectfully invited to attend. Interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

CARY—Died, June 20, 1905, at her parents' residence, 18 South Third Street, at 11 A. M., VIRGINIA STUART, infant daughter of Stuart B. and Alfred S. Cary, aged ten months.

Funeral from St. James Episcopal Church, WEDNESDAY, June 21, 1905, from above residence at 8 P. M.

Ice Wagon in Warm Runaway.

Paradoxical as it may seem, an ice wagon heated the atmosphere on Hancock Street, between Broad and Leigh, yesterday afternoon. The aforesaid wagon was being hauled by two spirited animals who heard some election noise and started from the corner of Hancock and Broad Streets. They were given a clean street, and the atmosphere sized as the wagon spun down the thoroughfare. At Leigh Street the fore wheels struck the paving, turning the wagon over and throwing the off-horse. The other animal was jerked down and fell directly across the street. There was a mix up that required a good deal of work to untangle. The ice wagon belonged to Mr. Jennings. The animals were not seriously injured.
